

Selling Out Korea?

OUR STATE DEPARTMENT COOPERATES WITH REDS

By Merwin K. Hart, Pres.
National Economic Council

Republished from Economic Council
Letter No. 478

A distinguished American citizen had two sons killed in action in the Korean War. Both won high decorations, one the Congressional Medal of Honor.

These two were among some 35,000 young Americans (out of a total of 450,000 fighting) who laid down their lives in that War. For what?

The theory was that our men were fighting for liberty—the liberty of the Korean people. 500,000 South Koreans fought bravely and ably. But overall direction of this "Police Action" lay in the United Nations.

Only 45,000 men of all other member countries of the UN took part. This episode should teach us for all time that we cannot count on the UN. We, alone among the Western nations, are supporting a government-paid propaganda for the United Nations, which propaganda means propaganda against the United States as an independent country.

And it was the United Nations, if not Soviet Russia itself, that caused us to end the un-won war in 1953, leaving a divided Korea. So those 35,000 lives were thrown away!

One of our friends returned from Korea a few days ago, after many months there. Referring to the "student" riots, about which we hear so much, he gave this explanation. All students in Korea wear the same uniform. A lot of the riff-raff element and worse got themselves into this uniform; and it is these that started all the trouble—communist-inspired, of course. As further proof that the mobs were not actually students, they attempted to overthrow a statue of Douglas MacArthur, the national idol of Korea.

So a few days ago, following almost the precise pattern set for South Africa, Secretary of State Christian Herter went into action, taking the side of the Korean revolutionaries without any apparent information from our long-time ally and that gallant hero, President Syngman Rhee. David Lawrence, in his column of April 28, says:—

"The Korean public needed no further word of encouragement to carry on bigger and bigger street demonstrations."

On April 27 Rhee resigned. All this can be simply a prelude to the taking over of South Korea by the communists. Once again we have abandoned our friends. Perhaps betrayed them is a truer statement. Nothing must be allowed to stop the advance of communism—though defenders of this policy are careful to prate about "democracy."

Meanwhile we sit quietly by while communists, both Russian and Chinese infiltrate Cuba and other Latin American countries. They are preparing for the kill—the kill of the United States.

What in hell is our State Department thinking of? Traitors are obviously in position to control the destiny of the United States and her citizens.

MARXISTS – MENACE TO AMERICA

Resume from a recent address by
THE HONORABLE HERBERT HOOVER
to the United Presbyterian Men.

The minds of thoughtful Americans are greatly troubled, for we are in the midst of several dangerous crises.

We have Communist nations determined to destroy us and they are succeeding at our very doorstep, where we are not only plagued with their conspiracies but with the infection of Karl Marx in both the thinking of our people and these actions of our own government.

One crisis which haunts us is the spread of Karl Marx Virus. The agents of this infection are like hermit crabs which crawl into such terms as "Liberal", "Progressive", "Managed Economy", "Welfare State", etc.

This infection creeps through our Nation by deluded and misled men and by disguised organizations, cults, clubs, congresses and committees.

The clergy can perform a great spiritual service to America if they would tear away the disguise and expose the meaning of this infection.

Christian Faiths need to realize and resist the ultimate end of this infection among us.

American Youth particularly needs the organized support of The Whole Clergy of the U.S.

You should try to awaken the people from apathy and arouse a great stir of conscience that certain evils be ended.

The constant exposure and demands of the press for reforms in law enforcement needs the impassioned force of the pulpit.

The American way of life has proved to be pretty tough. It needs to be even tougher right now.

Our implacable enemy is COMMUNISM.

—From BROWDER'S BOOK

"It is significant that the Communist Party, more than any other labor group, has been able to achieve successful united fronts with church groups on the most important issues of the day. This is not due to any compromise with religion as such, on our part. In fact, by going among the religious masses, we are for the first time able to bring our anti-religious ideas to them."

—From Earl Browder's book "What Is Communism?" Browder was top leader of the Communist Party in the United States for 16 years.

HELP SPREAD THE TRUTH

Who Are The Betrayers?

By Henry Allen

Those children who attended public schools 70 years ago, were taught that Benedict Arnold was the sum total of disloyalty to his native land. In the minds of every 10 year old student of that era, who had passed 5th or 6th grade, Benedict Arnold was the personification of treason and a symbol of perfidy and contempt for his attempt to betray his country.

To confirm that statement, suppose we look in upon that typical American school-room of 70 years ago and listen to the teacher who asks her class of some 40 pupils, "Who was the man who tried to betray his country? Without a moment's hesitation there came a loud chorus of young voices in lusty unison, "Benedict Arnold" . . . I know, because I was one of those pupils in that American school-room at the old Dwight School on West Springfield Street in Boston, Massachusetts, in the year 1890.

That was in the golden age when our school teachers were not afraid to teach the truth about our glorious American history and to inculcate in those young minds lofty respect and reverence for the great men and women who had made it. This nation had not yet suffered the subversive blight of UNESCO, and its programs for "Progressive Education," or the pernicious poisonous influence of the National Educational Assn. We were taught the exalted characteristics of those thousands of illustrious patriots who had built our National independence in those formative years, and we had a feeling of great pride that, in all that era, there had been only one man, Benedict Arnold, who had sunk to the lowest depths possible, in his attempt to betray his country. In those days, any teacher who would dare attempt to destroy that patriotic feeling and faith of our American youth, would have been quickly dismissed and summarily dealt with.

Within a brief span of 70 years, however, our school-children have found all of that has been changed because of the combined and organized conspiracies which flourish within the United Nations Organization, and the National Education Association. This is vividly revealed in that UNESCO series of publications "TOWARD WORLD UNDERSTANDING" (in book 5) which emphatically states that, "Your children should be weaned away from whatever remains of traditional love and respect for family and country."

Again, in book 5, "As long as the child breathes the poisoned air of NATIONALISM, education in world-mindedness can only produce precarious results."

Again in book 5, Education for 'world mindedness' encounters much difficulty outside the school. The principal one is certainly NATIONALISM."

A careful reading of the foregoing and numerous other volumes of treason published by UNESCO, should make it clear why our school-children today have become frustrated and confused, especially when they come to realize that contemporary American history, — if they are allowed to study it at all, — has become a history of intrigue, treason, and traitors; to mention a few:

Franklin D. Roosevelt and his New Deal Administration

Julius and Ethel Rosenberg

Alger Hiss, Owen Lattimore

Klaus Fuchs, Harry Dexter White

John Stewart Service, Harold Glasser

Dave Weintraub, Sol Adler

Remington, and a host of others.
